The logo, icons, arrows and RESERVE NOW button will be floating on top of the swiping thumbnails. The Arrows will have 50% opacity, so the image can still be visible, they will also have a little "swipe" animation.

The top swiping thumbnails will turn off opacity as it scrolls down revealing the parallax. It will turn back on as it scrolls back up.

All buttons (RESERVE NOW/READ MORE) will have a color changer hover.

The MVP's adventure pack information card will be Black with 50% opacity.

Images inside the adventure pack information card will have a zoom hover.

The background of both mobile and desktop version will have a Parallax scrolling effect. The top swiping thumbnails will turn off opacity as it scrolls down revealing the parallax.

Normal adventure pack information cards will be white with 80% opacity.

The footer will have a color gradient, with a 0% opacity at top, letting it melt with the page.

All hovers will be turned off for the mobile version.
